

Receiving Instructions

Inspect the cooler box for any evidence of shipping or handling damage before signing for receipt of goods. All shipping damage claims should be filed immediately with the carrier, as most will refuse liability for damages found after they leave premises.

Ensure cooler stands upright for 24 hours prior to use. Before installation, cleaning of water contact parts is advised as is a quick check that all parts are securely and correctly in place after shipping movements.